

WestEdge Design Fair 2014

September 17, 2014

WestEdge Design Fair returns to Santa Monica's Barker Hangar for its second edition October 16-19, 2014. This newest destination for modern design showcases a curated selection of over 150 leading national and international brands. Attendees will find design inspiration, and be able to shop from leading manufacturers of furniture, lighting, kitchen, bath, outdoor furnishings and other products for the home. The fair caters to trade, press and consumers alike, and offers a complete experience for attendees, including panel discussions and workshops, culinary activities, custom installations, a series of special events, and an opening night party to benefit Heal the Bay.

read more: westedgedesignfair.com